CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has at its heart SASN commitment to:

- Integrity,
- Service to the youth of our country,
- The development of sport among our youth,
- Brotherhood among all South Africans, and
- Accountability to its constituents, the youth, their parents, sponsors and donors.

Within this spirit, the following rights are recognised. Persons who, by their conduct or attitudes, do not acknowledge that rights are to be accompanied by responsibilities cannot enjoy them.

- The right to enjoy competitive sport in a safe and orderly environment.
- The right to be treated courteously and respectfully.

Coaches' Code of Conduct

- Remember that children participate for pleasure and that winning is only part of the fun.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing.
- Be reasonable in your demands on young players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Teach your players to follow the rules, not subtle inconsistencies.
- Whenever possible, group players to ensure everyone has a reasonable chance of success.
- Avoid overplaying talented players. The average need and deserve equal time.
- Develop team respect for the ability of opponents and for the judgement of officials and opposing coaches.
